

Mediality in late medieval Iceland

A workshop of the National Centre of Competence in Research (NCCR) 'Mediality'

30 November – 3 December 2009

Programme – N.B. TIMES OF SOME SESSIONS HAVE CHANGED

Monday, 30.11.2009

18.30 Jürg Glauser: Welcome and opening remarks

19.00 Else Mundal: To what degree did written texts change oral performance?

19.45 Dinner in Boldern

Tuesday, 1.12.2009

9.00 Russell Poole: Competitive texts

9.45 Jonas Wellendorf: Virtues and vices: the Fourth Grammatical Treatise

10.30 Morning tea

11.00 Kevin Müller: The terminology of literacy in Sturlunga saga

11.45 Lena Rohrbach: The written legacy of the Sturlung age – reflections on a media change

12.45 Lunch

14.00 Guðvarður Már Gunnlaugsson: The speed of the scribe

14.45 Svanhildur Óskarsdóttir: Icelandic manuscripts 1300–1500: scribes, users and patrons

15.30 Afternoon tea

16.00 Ellen E. Peters: „Postclassical” Íslendingasögur and the function of the söguöld in late medieval Iceland

17.30 Dinner in Boldern

19.00 Evening excursion to Zurich

Wednesday, 2.12.2009

9.00 Gísli Sigurðsson: Njáls saga and its listeners' assumed knowledge

9.45 Morning tea

10.15 Karl G. Johansson: Skalds and kings. The example of Skáldasaga in Hauksbók

11.00 Jens Eike Schnall: Collecting, compiling, commenting: a media perspective on Hauksbók

12.00 Lunch

13.15 Excursion to St Gallen, Dinner in St Gallen

Thursday, 3.12.2009

9.00 Kate Heslop: The mediality of Mímir

9.45 Judy Quinn: Memories of the afterworld in Old Norse literature

10.30 Morning tea

11.00 Carolyne Larrington (chair): Closing discussion

12.00 Lunch

13.30 End of workshop
Depart Boldern